

Medication Assisted Treatment
SAHMSA COVID-19 Response Funding Awards
2021-2022

Asian American Drug Abuse Program, Inc. (AADAP)
Site: Therapeutic Community Residential Treatment Program
Los Angeles County
$100,000.00

To provide and expand direct SUD services for under/uninsured adults facing COVID-19 stressors through the Therapeutic Community program at the adult residential treatment site in Los Angeles, CA, by hiring additional direct service staff to provide case management, supporting clients in navigating community and recovery resources, and increasing the integration of SUD and MH delivery of care. As well as offering integrated process groups, support catchment of mental illness, and by working collaboratively with staff to provide in-house training on co-occurring SUD and MH conditions.

Asian American Drug Abuse Program, Inc. (AADAP)
Site: Youth Outpatient - Mental Health
Los Angeles County
$125,000.00

To provide and expand direct mental health services for under/uninsured youth and healthcare providers facing COVID-19 stressors through the Integrated Care Project at the mental health site in Gardena, CA, by hiring additional direct service staff to integrate language diversity, current treatment evidence-based best practices, and the needs of un/underinsured clients and hard-to-reach communities. As well as integrate services that address the psychological stressors throughout the pandemic for youth and their families and provide resilience-building and vicarious-trauma trainings to frontline staff to support their wellbeing and longevity as care providers.

Asian American Drug Abuse Program, Inc. (AADAP)
Site: Youth Outpatient - SUD
Los Angeles County
$100,000.00

To provide and expand direct SUD services for under/uninsured youth facing COVID-19 stressors through the Journey to Hope and Healing program at the outpatient and intensive outpatient site in Gardena, CA, by hiring additional direct service staff to provide case management, supporting clients in navigating community and recovery resources, and offering clinical services for clients with co-occurring SUD and MH conditions, and expanding to conduct family-based interventions.

Asian American Drug Abuse Program, Inc. (AADAP)

Site: Adult Outpatient - Long Beach

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide and expand direct SUD services for under/uninsured adults facing COVID-19 stressors through the Community Collective Care program at the outpatient and intensive outpatient site in Long Beach, CA, by hiring additional direct service staff to provide case management, supporting clients in navigating community and recovery resources, and delivering integrated, culturally, and linguistically appropriate SUD care.

Asian American Drug Abuse Program, Inc. (AADAP)

Site: Adult Outpatient - Inglewood

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide and expand direct SUD services for under/uninsured adults facing COVID-19 stressors through the Hope and Healing program at the outpatient and intensive outpatient site in Inglewood, CA, by hiring additional direct service staff to provide case management, supporting clients in navigating community and recovery resources, and offering integrated SUD and MH parenting groups, in addition to increased supports around the ongoing impact of COVID-19.

Beit T'Shuvah

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To sustain essential SUD treatment and recovery services for the under/uninsured residents who are currently enrolled in the Primary Residential Treatment program and impacted by COVID-19 in Los Angeles, CA and directly support clinical staff to ensure engagement with residents on a daily basis, facilitating an effective program of recovery while remaining in compliance with the regulations of the Joint Commission and Drug Medi-Cal.

Child & Family Center

Los Angeles County

$50,000.00

To provide direct outpatient and intensive outpatient SUD treatment services for under/uninsured youth and adults impacted by COVID-19 in Santa Clarita, CA as well as supporting recovery support services through counseling, recovery monitoring, case management and relapse prevention.

CLARE|MATRX

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide direct SUD treatment services for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in Santa Monica, CA through the outpatient program. The program utilizes a hybrid model of telehealth and in-person services to provide a wide range of evidence-based treatments as well as case management and access to recovery support services.

Divine Healthcare Services, Inc.

Los Angeles County

$90,000.00

To provide direct outpatient and intensive outpatient SUD treatment services for under/uninsured youth and adults impacted by COVID-19 in Inglewood, CA through a telehealth model and fully dedicated staff, as well as supporting recovery support services to build self-management and coping strategies.

Ettie Lee Homes Inc.

Site: SUD Services

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide outpatient SUD treatment services for under/uninsured adolescents impacted by COVID-19 in Pomona, CA through three months of twice weekly treatment groups using a curriculum based on evidence-based models of CBT, MI, and mindfulness practices. Supporting clients to more effectively manage their mental health symptoms affected by COVID-19, to reduce their substance use and improve their general well-being and functioning.

Ettie Lee Homes Inc.

Site: Mental Health Services

Los Angeles County

$125,000.00

To provide mental health treatment services for under/uninsured youth, adults and healthcare workers impacted by COVID-19 in Pomona, CA through a hybrid telehealth model that will provide up to six months of weekly sessions to improve or resolve the emotional, psychological and or behavioral symptoms related to the pandemic, and improve the mental health and well-being of healthcare practitioners to address compassion fatigue and burnout and facilitate the practitioners ability to effectively function.

HealthRIGHT 360

Los Angeles County

$125,000.00

To provide outpatient mental health services to under/uninsured youth, adults, and healthcare practitioners impacted by COVID-19 in Pasadena, CA. Services will utilize a range of evidence-based practices conducted by experienced culturally competent licensed and license-eligible clinicians to address complex behavioral health needs.

High Gain, Programs Inc

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide SUD, DUI and co-occurring disorder treatment for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in Long Beach, CA through intensive case management and psychotherapy as ordered by the court as well as providing referrals and links to ancillary recovery support services.

LAC+USC Medical Center Foundation, Inc.

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To continue the MAT on-call line to provide MAT consultation and SUD treatment services to predominantly under/uninsured patients remotely in Los Angeles, CA. Providers with x-waivers will staff the line outside of their regular working hours, with an additional focus on direct street medicine outreach to proactively link individuals to care and address COVID-19 impacts.

Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol and Drug Abuse (L.A. CADA)

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide SUD treatment services to under/uninsured youth and adults impacted by COVID-19 in Santa Fe Springs, CA by funding an additional SUD telehealth counselor, as well as equipping and training staff to deliver telehealth treatment and peer recovery support services.

Riverside Recovery Resources

Site: Riverside

Riverside County

$100,000.00

To provide SUD treatment services for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 at the outpatient and intensive outpatient site in Riverside, CA designed to teach clients how to live and successfully cope without the use of substances utilizing both clinical and spiritual recovery principles and through the development of detailed individual treatment plans and extensive after-care programs.

Riverside Recovery Resources

Site: Lake Elsinore

Riverside County

$100,000.00

To provide SUD treatment services for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 at the outpatient and intensive outpatient site in Lake Elsinore, CA designed to teach clients how to live and successfully cope without the use of substances utilizing both clinical and spiritual recovery principles and through the development of detailed individual treatment plans and extensive after-care programs.

Safety Education Center, Inc.

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide SUD, DUI treatment for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in West Covina, CA through expansion of SUD counselor services and a telehealth model as well as providing referrals and links to DUI recovery support services so that clients have the tools to help them stay accountable and complete their treatment programs.

Sober Living by the Sea

Riverside County

$100,000.00

To provide up to 14 days of residential treatment services and/or up to 10 days with an option of virtual or in-person intensive outpatient program for under/uninsured adults with SUD and co-occurring disorders impacted by COVID-19 in Riverside, CA. As well as case management, follow-up after care, and linkages to supportive services to prepare for discharge through a Treatment Placement Specialist and Alumni Coordinator.

The MAT Access Points Project is funded through the Department of Health Care Services' California MAT Expansion Project and is administered and managed by The Center at Sierra Health Foundation.

Special Service for Groups, Inc. (SSG)

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide outpatient and intensive outpatient SUD treatment for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in Los Angeles, CA through the implementation of evidence-based practices with the goal of utilizing a trauma-informed and strengths-based approach that prioritizes harm reduction, recovery, and relapse prevention for participants. As well as providing recovery support services both in-house and via linkages to partner organizations.

Sunrise Community Counseling Center

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide telehealth SUD adapted Cognitive Behavioral Therapy treatment for under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in Los Angeles, CA through Project Nueva Esperanza that considers biological, psychological, and social factors in treatment provision. Ancillary recovery support services will be offered through telehealth referrals and linkages to multilingual and multicultural community services.

Tarzana Treatment Centers, Inc.

Site: San Fernando Valley- SUD

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide emergency SUD services to under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in Oxnard, CA by ensuring clients receive full case management including a comprehensive assessment and individualized treatment plan, treatment including via telehealth and access to strength-based recovery support services for both medical and non-medical needs.

Tarzana Treatment Centers, Inc.

Site: San Fernando Valley- Mental Health

Los Angeles County

$125,000.00

To provide outpatient mental health services to under/uninsured youth, adults, and healthcare practitioners impacted by COVID-19 in Oxnard, CA by ensuring clients receive full case management including a screening, intake and assessment as well as individualized treatment planning, which includes counseling, medication evaluation and monitoring, and crisis intervention.

Tarzana Treatment Centers, Inc.

Site: Long Beach

Los Angeles County

$125,000.00

To provide outpatient mental health services to under/uninsured youth, adults, and healthcare practitioners impacted by COVID-19 in Long Beach, CA by ensuring clients receive full case management including a screening, intake and assessment as well as individualized treatment planning, which includes counseling, medication evaluation and monitoring, and crisis intervention.

Tarzana Treatment Centers, Inc.

Site: Antelope Valley- Mental Health

Los Angeles County

$125,000.00

To provide outpatient mental health services to under/uninsured youth, adults, and healthcare practitioners impacted by COVID-19 in Lancaster, CA by ensuring clients receive full case management including a screening, intake and assessment as well as individualized treatment planning, which includes counseling, medication evaluation and monitoring, and crisis intervention.

Tarzana Treatment Centers, Inc.

Site: Antelope Valley- SUD

Los Angeles County

$100,000.00

To provide outpatient SUD services to under/uninsured adults impacted by COVID-19 in Lancaster, CA with an emphasis on those needing medication assisted treatment by ensuring clients receive full case management including a comprehensive assessment and individualized treatment plan, treatment and access to strength-based recovery support services for both medical and non-medical needs.

August 2021

The MAT Access Points Project is funded through the Department of Health Care Services' California MAT Expansion Project and is administered and managed by The Center at Sierra Health Foundation.